ALLEGATIONS:

On 17 May 2013, at approximately 2235 hours, Intake Aide Denise Stewart registered this complaint with the Independent Police Review Authority on behalf of [REDACTED]. It is alleged by the complainant and in Civil Suit 13-cv-4826, that on 16 May 2013, at approximately 1500 hours, at 4328 N. Ridgeway, Sgt. Eric Cato #1321:

- 1) Shouted and argued with [REDACTED]

It is further alleged that on the above date, time and location, Unknown Officers:

- 1) Pointed their weapons at the faces of [REDACTED] and [REDACTED]

INVESTIGATION:

In a statement given at IPRA, Complainant [REDACTED] related that he and his wife [REDACTED] were taking a nap when they heard three booms coming from their back door. Within seconds officers entered their bedroom with their guns drawn and pointed at them. The officers told them not to move, shut up and be quiet. Mr. [REDACTED] told the officers that the man that they were looking for did not live there and that they had the wrong address. He attempted to show them his identification but they told him not to move. Mr. [REDACTED] told the officers that there were three different mailboxes and two electric meters. A couple of officers left the apartment to verify this information. When they returned they informed the supervising sergeant, now known as Sgt. Cato that this information was accurate. Mr. [REDACTED] stated that he was shown the search warrant. Mr. [REDACTED] told the officers that they have more questions but Sgt. Cato told them that they were through there and that they were leaving. Mr. [REDACTED] stated that Sgt. Cato was very rude and argumentative even when they realized that they were at the wrong house. When Mr. [REDACTED] told Sgt. Cato that he was not feeling well, and may need an ambulance he was laughed at by the sergeant. Ms. [REDACTED] told Sgt. Cato to leave their home because he was rude. (Att.4, 19, 21, 27)

In a statement given at IPRA, [REDACTED] gave basically the same account of the incident as [REDACTED]. In addition, she stated that she was given a copy of the search warrant. (Att.28)

The Search Warrant indicated that Manuel Torres and the top floor of a single family residence located at [REDACTED] be searched. (Att.16)

The Digital photographs taken reveal several rooms of the unit where the search warrant was executed. (Att.10)

In a To-From Report, Accused Sgt. Cato related that he came in contact with [REDACTED] while supervising a search warrant. He entered the residence located at 4328 S. Ridgeway. Sgt. Cato asked the complainant if he was in charge of the residence and presented him with a copy of the search warrant and explained it to him. Mr. [REDACTED] was upset that the police was in his residence. Sgt. Cato denied all allegations of misconduct and only explained the search warrant. (Att.33)

CONCLUSION:

Accused #1: Sgt. Eric Cato #1321

Allegations #1: NOT SUSTAINED - The R/I recommends a finding of Not Sustained for Allegation #1. Sgt. Cato denied the allegations and insisted that he only explained the search warrant. There is insufficient evidence prove or disprove this allegation.

Accused #2: Unknown

Allegations #1: UNFOUNDED - The R/I recommends a finding of Unfounded for Allegation #1. Ms. [REDACTED] stated that she was not sure who pointed their guns at them. It is both for common sense reasons and for the safety of officers that they have their weapons drawn when executing a search warrant. Where the subject of a search warrant is narcotics, the likelihood that firearms will be ready available in the same location is much greater.
